Celebrating Children's Day

The children who attend the nursery school celebrated Children's Day on 14th November by wearing colourful clothing and having a day of full of fun activities.

They had a great time showing off their creativity through their clothing and were given medals for all their achievements for the year!

Children's Day is a yearly event aimed to increase awareness of the rights and education of children. The day is a tribute to India's First Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru, who advocated for free education for children and inclusion of free school meals. He also helped in the construction of thousands of schools in India, believing children's education to be a crucial part of the country's future progress.

Dia del Joc i la Cooperació

International Cooperation Day in Martorell (Barcelona) was celebrated with a busy street market and an exhibition showing the moving works of Michelle Fine and Pep Àvila. Roger and Anna also delivered a talk on women and patriarchy in rural South India. They discussed the importance of women having the resources to access education and work, and the projects Projecte Laia (Indian Futures' sister charity in Barcelona) runs to support this.
